

For Immediate Release

Managed Business Solutions joins ARMA International

Colorado Springs, Colo., May 20, 2010 Managed Business Solutions (MBS), has joined ARMA International as an Industry Member. ARMA International is a not-for-profit professional association and the authority on managing records and information – paper and electronic. The association also develops and publishes standards and guidelines related to records management. It was a key contributor to the international records management standard, ISO-15489.

“With ARMA’s invaluable resources such as legislative and regulatory updates; standards and best practices; technology trends and applications; and global networking of records and information management professionals, I felt that this is an immense benefit to MBS,” said Tee Ray Nolan, vice president of global operations.

ARMA International publishes Information Management (IM) magazine, the only professional journal specifically for professionals who manage records and information on a daily basis. The award-winning IM journal is published bi-monthly and features top-drawer articles on the hottest topics in records and information management today, as well as marketplace news and analysis.

About Managed Business Solutions

MBS is an Alaska Native-owned company, providing information technology based managed services for the commercial and Federal sectors. MBS has been providing complete IT solutions since 1993 and has a proven history of delivering national and global solutions.

MBS offers cost-effective offsite storage combining media and electronic vaulting services, document classification, data conversion services, e-records storage, and records management solutions. Our results show superior information lifecycle management and significantly reduce business operating costs. The MBS enterprise offsite storage operation consists of millions of pieces of media, we currently support over 280 sites in the Americas, Europe and Asia. For more information visit: www.mbshome.com

About ARMA International

ARMA International \(www.arma.org\) is a not-for-profit professional association and the authority on managing records and information. It is known worldwide for setting standards and best practices, and for providing comprehensive education, publications, and information on the efficient maintenance, retrieval, and preservation of vital information created in public and private organizations in all sectors of the economy. Formed in 1955, ARMA International is the oldest and largest association for the records and information management profession with a current international membership of more than 11,000. It also publishes the Information Management magazine.

XXXX